Seek Two Billion To Rearm Eight Nations In Pact

Administration Plans To Make Request For Funds From Congress

METHOD OF RAISING MONEY UNSETTLED

By JOHN A. REICHMANN
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, April 9.—The administration plans today to send Congress a bill for almost two billion dollars for rearming eight of the nation's North Atlantic neighbors.

The legislation, still in the drafting stage, is expected to reach the Capitol at about the time the North Atlantic treaty goes to the Senate for ratification.

Rearmament aid, in money and weapons, is being asked by Great Britain, France, Italy, The Netherlands, Belgium, Luxembourg, Norway and Denmark.

The amount asked reportedly is greater than previous reports indicated. But officials believe they will be able to prove that money spent on the cold war is far less than would be needed in a shooting war, and therefore real economy.

Method In Controversy

As yet there is said to be no real agreement on how the money will be raised. President Truman has refused to endorse the suggestion that it be taken out of the defense budget or economic cooperation administration funds.

According to his latest public statement, he still opposes deficit financing to meet the bill and wants a four-billion-dollar tax increase.

Diplomatic developments over the past week—probably the most significant since the war's end—presumably will be used to prove (Continued on Page Two)

One week from tomorrow will find churchgoers about the city observing Easter. A full program is planned by most churches during the coming Holy Week, when services will take place in preparation for commemoration of Easter. Special services are also planned for Palm Sunday.

One type of motorist Pa New finds on the highway is one who jogs along at about 30 miles an hour and when other motorists attempt to pass him, he steps on the gas. Such a practice nearly resulted in a serious accident on the Ellwood City road last evening.

Due to a mechanical change-over in the stereotyping department of The News, this edition was published at noon today. The changeover will take place during the week end, starting this afternoon.

Although highway department employees worked feverishly throughout Friday in order to get the Pulaski road open for through traffic, the workmen were unable to complete their task. Highway department attaches promise the road to be open for week-end traffic through. A power shovel and three trucks are working at the site today.

Dear Pa News: I believe that most everybody in New Castle reads your interesting column in The News, so I am passing along something that might start a lot of argument being now about time for gardeners to plant onion sets. They will go out the next morning and find some of the sets on top of the ground. Different reasons are given for this, some saying the moon has done it, some say birds pull or scratch them out. I discovered that it is fishing worms or night crawlers as anyone can (Continued on Page Two)

G.N.C.A. Names Officers For Year

Richard E. Rentz Is Elected As President At Meeting Friday Night

DAYLIGHT TIME GIVEN APPROVAL

Richard E. Rentz was elected president of the Greater New Castle Association Friday night when the annual meeting of the directors was held.

Mr. Rentz has been the first vice president for the past year, and succeeded Louis B. Round who served as president for the past year.

Dr. Wilbur E. Flannery was named first vice president and Ralph Audino as second vice president. Miss Mary Vandivort was re-elected as secretary and A. W. Tindall as treasurer.

Favor Daylight Time

The directors went on record as favoring daylight saving for the city. The statement was made that industry and business men favored the plan and the GNCA endorsed it. Mayor John F. Haven has said that city hall will be on "summer hours" from April 25 to September 25. The court house will probably pass such a resolution on Monday.

Mayor Haven has urged that the city as a whole adopt Daylight Saving for the four months between April 25 and September 25.

Protest Road Condition
A resolution was received from the New Castle Motor club which protests the condition of Route 18 between New Castle and Beaver Falls. The GNCA endorsed the position of the motor club and adopted a similar resolution of protest.

Following custom, the directors named two directors for Division 17, the one division whose directors are not elected. Norman E. Clark and John P. Boyles were named.

Crowe Indicted On Four Counts

Federal Grand Jury Hands Up Indictment To New York's Bank Official

NEW YORK, April 8.—(INS)—A federal grand jury handed up a four-count indictment on Friday against Richard H. Crowe, National City bank official who allegedly stole $883,660 of the bank's funds.

If convicted on all charges, Crowe faces a maximum penalty of 45 years imprisonment and a $30,000 fine.

All but $60,000 of the money has been recovered.

Crowe was captured in Florida and returned to New York. Of the total amount stolen, $690,000 in bonds were recovered Thursday from his Staten Island home.

Police said King, an amputee, confessed killing Loda Irwin, 35, of Morrisdale, Pa., and hacking her body to pieces. He told of first burning the woman's legs, arms and head in a blacksmith's forge, police said, and then setting fire to the cabin.

Chest Board Hears Report

Special Committee Advises Community Chest To Hire Executive Director

A special committee studying the reorganization of the local Community Chest reported to the Chest's board of directors at a meeting Friday night at The Castle.

The special group had been studying the present organization, hearing more than a dozen local citizens' views, and comparing this organization with that in other cities of comparable size. John P. Boyles was chairman of the special committee.

Boyles' committee recommended to the 25 board members present that the Community Chest hire an executive director. The position would be a full time job.

Stimulates Cooperation
Experiences in other cities showed that such an executive has accomplished very much in the way of stimulating closer cooperation between the Chest and its agencies. The plan has also promoted a broader basis for support.

A third part of this executive-type plan would be to develop a year-around educational program for the Chest and its agencies. The committee also recommended that the executive committee be empowered to hire a qualified young man for the executive directors position.

This motion was passed but the appointment is subject to the final ratification of the board.

Labrador Awaits Food Supply Planes

ST. JOHN'S, Newfoundland, April 9.—(INS)—Supply planes, loaded with foodstuffs, awaited the lifting of a pea soup fog today to fly provisions to southern Labrador settlements.

Sources in St. John's said the unprecedented food shortage was due to the small inventories maintained by dealers who felt untold with Canada would bring about a drop in wholesale prices.

NEW YORK, April 9.—(INS)—Taxi operations were normal in New York City today with all of the city's cabs back on the streets after their eight-day strike.

More Rent Controls Ordered Lifted

Some Areas In Pittsburgh District Are Included In Latest Removals

WASHINGTON, April 9.—(INS)—Rent controls were removed today on about 58,000 housing units in seven states including part of the Pittsburgh area.

The decontrol action is the latest in a series under which Federal Housing Expediter Tighe Woods took rent ceilings off of some 170,000 units within a week.

Under the new rent control act, controls may be restored in any area where removal results in unreasonable rent increases. Local advisory boards are being kept in fact for that purpose.

Areas affected by today's action includes the following in Pennsylvania:

Pennsylvania—The Township of Wharton, Henry Clay, Stewart, Washington, Whiteley and Greene, and Butler county (except the townships of Adams, Butler, Jackson and Slippery Rock) in the Pittsburgh area; also the townships of Addison, Allegheny, Black, Elk, Lick, Brothers' Valley, Fairhope, Greenville, Jefferson, Larimer, Lower Turkeyfoot, Upper Turkeyfoot, Middle Creek, Millford, Northampton, Southampton and Stoneycreek in the Altoona-Johnstown area.

European Aid Bill Now Before House For Action

Marshall Plan Fund Bill Passes Senate By 70-7 Vote Late Friday

HOUSE TO SPEED ACTION ON BILL

By WILLIAM THEIS
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, April 9.—House Leaders called up the multi-billion-dollar Marshall Plan bill today on a schedule calling for passage in two days instead of the Senate's two weeks.

The administration's five billion, 580 million dollar European recovery measure went through the talk-worn Senate last Friday by a 70 to 7 vote.

Awaiting Senate action, the House ordered a Saturday session to begin work on its own five billion 380 million dollar bill.

With only five hours of formal debate planned, the House expected to reach a vote Monday and send the issue to a House-Senate conference committee.

Morale-Boosting Move
Paul G. Hoffman, economic cooperation administrator, hailed the overwhelming Senate vote as morale-boosting news for western Europe.

Hoffman strode onto the Senate floor after adjournment and gave congratulations and thanks to Chairman Connally (D) Tex., of the Foreign Relations Committee for his handling of the legislation.

Forty-four Democrats and 26 Republicans voted for the ECA bill, while six Republicans and one Democrat opposed it on final passage.

The Senate version provides four billion 280 million dollars for the fiscal year starting July 1; one billion 150 million for April, May and June this year, and 150 million in forward contracting authority.

The House Foreign Affairs Committee eliminated the 150 million (Continued on Page Two)

Britain's Labor Party Is Facing New Vote Battles

Further Elections In Britain Are Under Way Today; Conservatives Gaining

LONDON, April 9.—(INS)—Britain's Labor party, its grip on local councils badly shaken in this week's balloting, today puts the party's case before the voters in 23 additional counties.

Labourites suffered their most disastrous setback in London yesterday when, after 15 years control of the county council, they gained nothing better than a tie.

Conservatives won 64 seats, the same number as Labor, while a lone Liberal gained a place to hold the balance of power.

However, political observers expect a short life for the unprecedented situation. The subsequent election of 11 new members to serve on the council is believed almost certain to result in Labor's control of the body.

In the county elections held so far, Conservatives have gained a total of 134 seats while losing 14 and Labor has lost 154 and gained only 50.

Abandon Survey On Daylight Savings

HARRISBURG, April 9.—(INS)—The Pennsylvania state Chamber of Commerce said today observance of daylight saving time this summer will be "almost 100 per cent" and therefore the usual statewide survey of communities planning to switch April 24 has been abandoned.

Last year, the chamber said, only two of 400 population centers remained on standard time during the summer months compared with 29 in 1947.

MARGARET TRUMAN CONCERT ARRANGED FOR COLUMBUS, O.

Feverishly Working To Reach Girl In Deep Well

BULLETIN
SAN MARINO, Calif., April 9.—(INS)—Rescue workers struggled deep in the earth today to reach Kathy Fiscus, 3½ years old, trapped in an abandoned 14-inch well casing.

At 7:30 a. m., after working with desperate speed throughout the night, the rescue workers had drilled a parallel hole to a depth of 76 feet and were preparing to cut through the casing in the 120-foot well.

The rescuers held faint hope that they would find the child alive. There was no sound from within the pipe.

SAN MARINO, Cal., April 9.—Two veteran hard-rock miners were lowered early today into a 74-foot pit in an effort to reach a 3½-year-old girl trapped in an abandoned well.

Russia To Seek Share In Control Of Former Italian African Colonies

By PIERRE J. HUSS
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., April 9.—Andrei Gromyko is expected to make a strong bid today for Russian participation in eventual control of Italy's former African colonies.

The Soviet deputy foreign minister is slated to tell the United Nations political committee where the Kremlin stands on the matter of these strategic areas.

The 58-nation committee has already heard the American, British and French views on the problem.

Russia Would Be In
Gromyko reportedly will call on the political committee to assign the U. N. trusteeship council as chief guardian and supervisor of the former Italian colonies. Under such a scheme, Russia could assure for herself participation in Mediterranean colonial administration.

In presenting the British viewpoint, Hector McNeil a few days ago gave advance notice to the political committee that Britain will oppose any "multiple trusteeship" system over strategic areas like the Cyrenaica. On that point, McNeil asked for a British administration.

The United States sees eye to eye with Britain on administering Cyrenaica and on the proposal to return Somaliland to Italy under U. N. trusteeship, and all but western Eritrea to Ethiopia.

Latin-American Sentiment
Sentiment is strong among the Latin-American bloc for restoring the former colonies as much as possible to Italy. Italian foreign minister Count Sforza is planning to voice Italy's viewpoint. The committee granted him the right to participate in the discussions without vote.

Italy's prospects for early membership in the U. N. faded considerably when another Soviet veto in the security council last night underlined the fact that the dead-

State Commission Postpones Until September 1, Order On Rate Changes

NEW ROUTES WILL BE LAUNCHED SOON

HARRISBURG, April 9.

—(INS)—The Public Utility Commission today postponed until September 1, its order requiring the Shenango Valley Transportation Company to reduce its rates approximately $39,000 a year.

At the same time, the Commission authorized the company to expand its bus service in New Castle. The expansion includes establishment of a new route and extension of two others.

The PUC said the rate reduction postponement was granted on a joint petition by the city of New Castle and the company.

Need More Service
The petition pointed up the necessity for immediate extension of bus service in New Castle and estimated the annual loss as a result of their inauguration at $24,288, according to the commission.

The PUC said it was convinced there is a need for the additional bus service and that revenue obtained from operating the expanded facilities will be substantially less than cost.

The extensions will be on the Cascade-Sampson and Jefferson street routes while the new route will be designed "Hamilton street."

On February 1, the PUC ordered the company to submit within 20 days a new tariff carrying rates designed to yield a maximum of represented a reduction of $39,100 from the company's estimated annual income under existing rates.

New Routes Proposed
Howard LeRoy Shoaff, superintendent of the Shenango Valley Transportation company, today announced receipt of a Public Utilities commission order authorizing the extension of two bus lines, and a new bus line.

According to the order, service is to start immediately upon receipt of the order. However a week or two will be required for bus officials to arrange schedules according to Mr. Shoaff, before the new service begins.

Mayor John F. Haven announced the routes of the new lines, which was confirmed by Superintendent Shoaff.

The extensions provide for service as follows:

Wilmington-Moravia Route
Wilmington avenue, North Jefferson street, North street, North Mill street, South Mill street, Croton avenue extension, west to Moravia, Charles street, South Jefferson street, Terrace avenue, thence west to Moravia street, and returning north, via the same route.

Cascade-Sampson Route
Cascade Park route through Washington street, North Jefferson street, Grant street, Sampson street to Emery street, returning via the same route.

Bus Line

FEVERISHLY WORKING TO REACH GIRL IN WELL

ing the hundreds of sweating engineers and excavation workers as the miners went down into the earth on their mercy mission.

Huge bits biting into the earth ground to a halt until the two men determined whether the trapped girl was above or below the point to which the larger of two newly-dug excavations had reached.

On hitting the bottom the miners tunneled to the 14-inch easement in which the little girl was wedged. They had high speed saws in readiness to cut through the casement in the event they found the child's location in the vicinity of the pit's bottom.

The child fell into the black depths of the well yesterday afternoon while playing in an open field with her sister, Barbara, 9, and a cousin, Gus Lyon, of Chula Vista, Cal.

The tot survived the fall and for hours she responded to call from above. As time passed, however, her voice became weaker and weaker and finally ceased altogether.

The child's father is David H. Fiscus, an employee of the San Marino Water Department which drilled the well.

dollar contract authority and cut 50 millions from the April-May-June authorization.

Government Guaranties

It recommended government guaranties up to 300 million to encourage American private capital to participate in the recovery project. This fund would be provided through treasury advances in addition to the appropriations for ordinary ECA operations.

Despite the Senate's acceptance of the full authorization urged by the Foreign Relations Committee, there is every prospect that when the Appropriations Committee takes up the subject it will cut the actual outlay of money.

Members of the Foreign Relations Committee, including Sen. Vandenberg (R) Mich., "invited" the Appropriations Committee to review the dollar figure closely in the light of developments.

Amendments Adopted

Amendments adopted on the Senate floor would:

Permit the use of a 54 million dollar unexpended balance in China aid funds until next Feb. 15 in "non-Communist" areas of China.

Rap the Dutch for their policy in the Indonesian war and serve notice that ECA funds will be cut off from The Netherlands if the United Nations Security Council should impose economic sanctions.

Bar use of ECA funds for foreign advertising tighten the check to end use of American aid, help American marine insurance companies compete for ECA business, and add requirements for shipping goods on U. S. Ships.

that the western powers, by a stiff and united front, have forced Russia into a bargaining position.

This would mean hope for lifting the Berlin blockade, in itself a heavy expense, and a general settlement which might save the United States occupation costs in Germany, Austria, Japan and Korea.

Week's Developments

The week's top developments were:

1. Signing of the North Atlantic pact to coordinate the defense plans of 12 democratic powers.

2. Agreement to replace military control in Germany with civilian rule and to unite the economies of the United States, British and French zones at a substantial saving.

Secretary of State Acheson joined British Foreign Secretary Bevin and French Foreign Minister Schuman in maintaining that the pact and the Berlin agreement improved the west's bargaining position.

Acheson declared at a news conference that the United States has always recognized that the vacuum of western Germany must be filled in order to bargain with Moscow.

Schuman said that the Berlin agreement might mean the reopening of four-power talks on Germany. Bevin stressed that the Atlantic pact itself has already indicated its value by restoring in Europe and elsewhere a feeling of security.

Bevin said this better feeling enabled the western powers to reach agreement on Germany.

All agreed, however, that an overall settlement with Russia cannot be taken up unless the Berlin blockade is lifted.

Atomic Energy In Bio-Chemistry Saved Men In War

Many Experiments Applying Atomic Energy To Bio-Chemistry Led To Winning War

By JAMES E. BROWN
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

LONDON, April 9.—An ingenious application of atomic energy in the field of bio-chemistry was disclosed on Wednesday to have saved thousands of American lives in World War II.

Professor John W. Irvine of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology told International News Service that the method—whereby "whole blood" can be preserved for 21 days or more—is one of several atomic developments, other than the bomb, which helped win the war.

Professor Irvine, in England for the Oxford University International Atomic Energy Research Conference, explained that at the start of the war, "whole blood" could be preserved in its original strength for only five days.

The armed services, therefore, called on the scientists to develop a method whereby blood could be preserved for a longer period.

Used Radio Active Iron
The M. I. T. group experimented and found that a method using radio-active iron would keep the blood in good condition for 21 days.

Professor Irvine said that one officer reported that at the front he successfully used blood for a transfusion that was 30 days old.

The scientific experiments which led to the discovery were carried out at M. I. T., but the clinical work was done by Harvard Medical School and Bryn Mawr Hospital.

Professor Irvine stated: "People are prone to think of the atomic bomb as the only contribution. That is an error. Many of the discoveries are still on the secret list. I, for example, have never worked on the atomic bomb, nor have I visited the New Mexico plant, but I have done a great deal of work on atomic energy."

Non Metallic Mines
"For example, one of our inventions which the army never tried was the use of radio-active materials to mark non-metallic land mines. As is known, metallic mines are fairly easy to detect, but non-metallic mines are a different problem."

"The theory was that when our army was forced to retreat they could plant these mines in advance of the enemy if they could find a way of detecting them later when they recaptured the ground.

"We solved this by having a small amount of radio-active material buried with each land mine. The radio-active material was placed inside a synthetic rock so that the Germans could not detect the device if they dug up the mine. But, like a lot of other discoveries, the invention was not used."

Used As Tracer
Professor Irvine explained how atomic energy can be used for what scientists call a "tracer." He said that various chemical elements can be rendered radio-active, and that they can then be picked up by electrical means.

For example, penicillin can be grown in a medium containing radio-active sulphur, and the penicillin can subsequently be extracted from the mold. Professor Irvine believes that this process will eventually enable scientists to learn how penicillin acts to kill germs.

Asked how long it would be before atomic energy could be used to generate power, the professor said that some of the best American scientists estimated that it would take 20 years but that he personally thought it might be sooner.

He said that a new plant for the purpose of experimenting along these lines is now being built in Idaho.

THE FAMILY SCRAPBOOK

By DR. ERNEST G. OSBORNE

FUN WITH NATURE IN THE SPRING

Even though there are no naturalists in your family, everyone can have a lot of fun these spring months watching things develop. Here are a couple of simple ideas that may start some of the family on the way to being naturalists.

Moth and butterfly cocoons often can be picked off leafless trees by one with an observant eye. If the small twigs on which they are fastened are hung from the top of a wire cage one may expect that the magic of Spring will bring from the ugly cases beautifully colored insects. Few things are more exciting to children than to see these changes taking place.

Another fascinating experience for children is to watch frogs' eggs change to tadpoles and the tadpoles gradually lose their tails, grow legs and finally become frogs. There are few ponds that fail to have frogs in them. Exploration in the early spring will yield either the jellylike masses of eggs or later developing tadpoles. These may be kept in water-filled fruit jars with a minimum of mess and a maximum of enjoyment.

CROOKS AND BONES
Crooks are not very popular among honest people. If a man is crooked he cannot be trusted. Bones are something like that. If a bone does not get the right kind of nourishment it is likely to be crooked or misshapen. It probably cannot be trusted to do its work very well.

When children do not get enough of the right foods their bones do not develop properly. The condition is called rickets. Sunlight helps the body to make use of vitamins and minerals. Babies need lots of sunlight and milk and other good things to help them to make good bones.

Israel Receiving Many Immigrants

PHILADELPHIA, April 9.—(INS)—The state of Israel is receiving 1,000 immigrants daily and is prepared to absorb as many as one million displaced persons, according to Chilik Weizman.

Weizman, brother of Israel's president, told an Allied Jewish appeal dinner that Israel plans to build 5,000 new homes as an emergency housing measure.

through a change of life, rather than dying. It is losing some of the industries it founded, like textiles and shoes and adding new industries. But it shows a net growth in recent years both in number of plants and number of job opportunities.

Unemployment began to rise noticeably after the November elections, and has been rising steadily since. For the first time in many months, employment officials recently expressed the hope that the rate of industrial layoffs was leveling off.

Unemployment compensation claims in Massachusetts totaled 72,196 in the first week of November, 1948. In the first week of December they rose to 82,308, then leaped to 132,000 on February 16th. When the Detroit Steel corporation was putting a new one million two hundred fifty thousand dollar plant in production at Camden, Connecticut, in the week ending February 26th, they receded 105,620. For the long haul New England shows a healthy replacement of jobs lost.

New England once made all of the shoes produced in this country. Today it provides about thirty per cent.

The New England textile industry suffered its great loss in the 1920's, when plants migrated to the South. There is still a steady drainage.

The employment jump because of newer industries not only has made up for the loss of jobs in slipping industries, but has been enough to record a modest over-all growth.

The lagging student in college (or high school) needs a tutor over an extended period to help him in his day-by-day study. Often another student, even a classmate, can be the best helper. He should, of course, be paid. It would be a good investment.

Any student might, of course, help himself considerably from following some of the foregoing suggestions, and others appearing in my bulletin, "Tips for Students," (to be had in a stamped envelope by writing me at 235 East 45th street, New York, N. Y.)

April Showers Bring Hazards To Motorists

HARRISBURG.—Colonel C. M. Wilhelm, Pennsylvania State Police commissioner, today warned motorists that the beautiful Spring weather may bring tragedy on the highways unless all drivers adjust their driving to changing conditions.

"April showers often cause driving hazards," the commissioner emphasized. "Vision may be affected by dirty water splashed on the windshield and lights. Windshield wipers should be thoroughly checked and new blades installed, if necessary. Headlight lenses should be cleaned after driving through a shower."

He also reminded motorists of the importance of checking brakes and tires, in order that the car may be stopped safely in an emergency.

Record Low Number Of Sheep On Farms

HARRISBURG.—Sheep numbers are at the lowest level ever known in Pennsylvania.

At the beginning of the year 1947 there were 2,985,000 sheep on Pennsylvania farms. This past January 1 farmers reported an all-time low of only 228,000 head, a drop of one per cent from the year previous. For the 10-year period, 1938-47, the January 1 inventory showed an average of 343,000 sheep on Pennsylvania farms.

Reasons for the decline, which has been steady for more than 80 years, are disclosed in a federal-state survey report as:

Low returns from raising sheep in comparison with other livestock enterprises; fencing problems; and losses from killings by dogs and predatory animals.

Observers note that in recent years the dairy industry of Pennsylvania has advanced as the sheep industry declined.

Sheepmen have advised the department that the number of ewes one year and older this January 1 was 146,000, the same as last year. Ewe lambs totaled 35,000 compared with 34,000 in 1948.

Until late in the 18th Century, peers attended the English House of Lords dressed in Parliamentary robes adorned with the stars and ribbons of their orders. Robes are now worn only at the opening of Parliament and a few other special occasions.

John Lawson Named Scout Camp Director

Field Executive To Head 1949
Summer Session; Announce
Camping Arrangements

JOHN LAWSON

John Lawson, field scout executive, Lawrence County Council, Boy Scouts of America, has been named director of the Scout camp for the 1949 summer season.

Mr. Lawson is well qualified to head this important phase of scout life. After spending four and a half years in the army, 16 months in the South Pacific, he returned to civilian life and graduated from Youngstown college in June, 1948.

Scout Background

Scout executive's training was procured at Schiff Reservation, Mendham, N. J., which Mr. Lawson attended for a 45-day course. He has also completed the camp leaders training course conducted by the National Boy Scout Council.

The dates for camp this season are July 3 through July 23. The session will be divided into three periods that start Sunday afternoon and end the following Saturday noon.

Camp will also be open the month of June for troop camping.

but without a regular waterfront program or dining facilities.

Innovations Planned

During the regular July session scouts may enroll under one of three plans that are innovations this year. Under Plan I the troops will provide their own leadership and do their own cooking. However, they will have access to the waterfront facilities under the camp director.

Plan II is the same as the first one except the troops will eat in the dining hall. An extra charge will be made for this.

Scouts may also enroll as individual campers under Plan III. While at camp they will be formed into provisional troops.

Several troops have already made reservations in anticipation of the summer session at camp and other troops have been advised by Director Lawson to make arrangements as soon as possible.

HARRISBURG.—Contracts for more than 50 miles of highway construction, reconstruction, grade crossing removal, widening, relocation and other improvements will be let by the State Highway department following opening of bids April 22, Secretary of Highways Ray F. Smock announced today.

This is the first major bid opening of the new construction season. All types of road from farm-to-market to improvements to routes through cities are included in the work which will be performed in 14 counties.

These projects are in addition to carry over construction from last season and work scheduled by the Highway department's own maintenance forces.

Bradford county leads with the mileage to be constructed under the April 22 lettings with eight and one-quarter miles. Venango, Northumberland, Bucks and Warren counties will each gain improvements of more than five miles and Somerset, Washington, Luzerne and Monroe counties will gain nearly as much.

Around Hollywood

By FRANK NEILL

(International News Service Staff Correspondent)

HOLLYWOOD, April 9.—Everytime a Hollywood married couple gets bored with beating each other over the noggin and decides to go piffit, the event is worth a couple of lines in practically any public print.

Movie marital bust-ups are fast and frequent, but actually enduring homes in Hollywood far outnumber the divorces.

A few months ago some smart cookie took a survey. And he popped up with the startling statement that most screen stars have worked out a plan for enduring wedded bliss that assured less separations than are found in non-professional life.

Work Together

When John Agar and his wife Shirley Temple were working together recently in "Adventure in Baltimore," he explained:

"I gave up a business career to become an actor so Shirley and I would not have separate interests but instead of common bond beyond our domestic ties."

He, of course, makes more dough as an actor than he would clerking in a bank, but that same common bond of interest is responsible for keeping many movie characters out of divorce courts.

Proud Of Baby

Humphrey Bogart and Lauren Bacall are proud of their new baby—who never will be called "baby," incidentally, because that's Bogart's pet handle for the Missus. Lauren said:

"When we work in a picture together it always is as professionals and not as husband and wife. And I never give advice until I'm asked for it. And I do not criticize Bogie's work. Ever!"

Urges Attention To Non-Governmental Groups In Promoting World Peace

PHILADELPHIA, April 9. — (INS)—A top United Nations official urged that greater attention be paid to the work of international non-governmental organizations in promoting peace and understanding between nations.

Lyman C. White, secretary of the U. N. Committee on Non-Governmental Organizations, declared before the 53rd annual meeting of the American Academy of Political and Social Science in Philadelphia:

"The expression of 'international mind' has, in fact, meant the 'official international mind.'"

"The development of the 'non-governmental international mind,' which leads one to think of the relations among groups of people of different nationalities and how they may promote their common interests, has been neglected."

Needs Development

"We need to develop both the official and the non-official international mind."

Among the more than 900 international private organizations devoted to art, culture, peace and philanthropy, white mentioned the International Relief Organization, The World Health Organization, International Labor Organization, The U. N. Education, Scientific and Cultural Organization, and various others.

White said their role in international affairs should be stressed because of the increasing importance of their functions in helping to build and solidify peace.

Try And Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

The social set in Toledo, relates Cleveland Armory, decided to stage a charity horse show. The knowing horsewoman in charge of the proceedings, however, took sick on the eve of the affair, and another girl, who knew nothing about horses, volunteered to hold down the post. Her first phone call came from a man who had several horses entered.

"This is most embarrassing," he apologized, "but I'm afraid I'll have to ask you to scratch one of my horses for me." "I'll be glad to," said the girl pleasantly. "Where?"

After digesting some recent and familiar sounding speeches by Soviet bigwigs in which totalitarianism was glibly defined as "democracy in its purest form," Quentin Reynolds pointed out that there is more of Alice in Wonderland than there is of Karl Marx in the official Russian 1949 "line." It was to Alice herself that Humpty Dumpty explained scornfully, "When I use a word, it means just what I choose it to mean."

PROPER HEMMING FOR SMART APPEARANCE

The smart appearance of a garment is often marred by an unsightly, uneven, poorly-made hem. Sagging or bulky hem-lines can be improved if home dressmakers will follow a few simple suggestions for putting in hems.

Hems should be even, flat, and smooth, with the hemming stitches barely noticeable from the right side of the garment. If the dress is made at home, the hemline is more likely to remain even if the garment is allowed to hang for a day before marking the hem. This is especially necessary for the full skirt which will stretch down more than the parts on the straight of the material.

A skirt marker may be used, or have someone mark the hemline with pins. Pin the hem up after it has been hung to see if the length is correct.

After checking the length, turn up the hem to the line of the markings. Run basting stitches about a quarter of an inch from the folded edge. Press fold of hem on the inside, but don't stretch the lower edge of the hem. Press the entire hem so it will lay flat. Trim off the excess material if necessary.

Then run a machine gathering stitch about one-fourth inch from the row edge. Draw up the material until the hem edge fits inside the skirt. Press well. Stitch seam binding to hem edge and use a slightly loose not too close, hand hemming stitch to finish the hem. It is also possible in wool materials to shrink out much of the extra fullness by placing heavy paper between the hem edge and the skirt before pressing.

Two to three-inch hems are best for slim or moderately flared skirts. One to one and a half-inch width look well for the full circular skirts. For cotton and rayon skirts, turn the hem edge up and stitch it by machine. Then turn it up again and hem by hand.

BRING LIGHT TO DARK CLOSET, PANTRY, HALL

Old pantries, dark closets, tiny halls, and dark porches—all a part of many houses—may be brought into greater use without spending much time or money on material. Most modern kitchens do not need a pantry because built-in cupboards take care of utensils and supplies formerly kept in a pantry.

With slight changes, such as adding cheerful color and gay accessories, the pantry may be made into an attractive breakfast room. Or it may become a compact work room and business center. Another practical use for the extra room may be as a lavatory or a laundry.

For the small, dark, catch-all closet, try using paint and paper that harmonize with the color of the room to make it bright and cheerful. Arrange the shelves, racks, or rods to provide space for articles you wish to keep in the closet. A very shallow closet may be converted into a bookcase or a combination bookcase and desk.

Make a small porch into a charming and pleasant sunroom with windows installed so they may be opened easily in summer. A small porch also may become a work room and laundry. The hall of a house, no matter how small or dark it is now, should be made to present an invitation to come into the house. Light, sunny colors make a small dark hall seem larger and more cheerful.

Plan Camporee, First Aid Meet

New Castle district scoutmasters' roundtable was held at the McConnell Cabin, on the council campsite, Wednesday evening.

The main topic of the evening was the discussion of the forthcoming first aid meet. The annual affair will be held at George Washington Junior High on April 22.

Another item on the agenda was the camporee planned for June. Al Chamberlain, scoutmaster of troop 3, has been appointed chairman of the camporee.

Herb Rodgers, neighborhood commissioner, showed a color film, "The Scout and the Forest."

Refreshments were served to those present which included Bill Weitz, Al Chamberlain, A. L. Wilson, Ray Zeigler, Tom Klingensmith, Bob Leasure, Lee Whiting, N. J. McCluskey, Clinton Kennaday, E. Black, Herb Rodgers, Tom McCormick, H. I. Lamphier, Cliff Robinson, and John Lawson.

A. L. Wilson, district commissioner, was chairman of the meeting.

"Assignment; America"

By INEZ ROBB

(Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.)
(Distributed by International News Service)

FORT WORTH, Tex., April 9. —In view of the cowboy crooning over the radio and all the kids who demand cowboy suits for Christmas, it's rather surprising to learn there is a distinct shortage of apprentices in the cowboy business.

The cow poke ain't home on the range any more, podner. In fact, he just ain't. Cow men have a hard time gittin' enough hands to tend the critters, cows, that is.

Watt Reynolds, cow man and one of the nine heirs of the vast Reynolds spread (345,000 acres) kindly drew me this information as we sat comfortably over libations in the elegant Blackmoor room of the Fort Worth club.

Hard To Get Cowboys

"Sure is hard to get cowboys," Reynolds opined. "The dream of being a cowpoke fades by the time a kid is 18." He is afraid the cowboy may someday join the buffalo, and then, where will the cow business be?

The Reynolds family and the Reynolds ranches are famous in Texas. It's a pioneer clan that came to this state with nothing but ambition and a will to work and has wound up in the cattle and chips.

"But my uncle used to tell me that many a time he could have traded a pair of boots for a section of Texas land—if only he'd had the boots," Reynolds said.

A kinsman of Watt Reynolds is almost equally famous in the Lone Star state for another saying. That was Joe Reynolds who, during a terrible Texas drought, was reminded that the rain falls alike on the just and unjust.

"Podner," replied Joe, "if it'll

Not All Picturesque

Nor are all cow men picturesque Texans in big hats, frontier pants and ten-gallon hats. Scotch, English and New York capital owns some of the largest ranches in Texas. The SMS ranch, for instance, is owned by New York capital and operated by Swedes.

This I learned from Frank Reeves, a newspaper stock market analyst with a difference. The stock Reeves analyses is cattle rather than coupons.

He does a daily column "The Chuck Wagon" for the Fort Worth Star-Telegram, but there all resemblance to New York newspapers' stock experts end. Reeves wears western pants, a Stetson, boots encrusted with manure and a heavy sun and wind burn rather than the eastern analyst's double-breasted blue job and pale, hunted look.

Reeves' beat is from Denver, Colo., to Brownsville, Texas, and from Chicago to the King Ranch, or wherever there are western cattle to write about. He travels a minimum of 50,000 miles annually to cover his beat.

Reeves is a talented man. He can sit a rail fence and chew tobacco with the men or lead out the ladies to cut a pigeonwing in any square dance.

When I asked Reeves, a former cowboy, what a cattle editor does, he grinned and said:

"The best he kin."

Farmers are the largest single group of automobile users.

G.I. Suspected Of Desertion; Found As Woman Magician

British Authorities Hand Him Over To Army Officials At Bur-tonwood, England

BURTONWOOD, Eng., April 9. —(INS)—A suspected G. I. deserter who fooled audiences and fellow vaudevillians with his performances as a woman magician for three years, today traded his nylon hose and high-heeled shoes for army fatigues.

The suspect, identified by U. S. military police as Delbert P. Hill, 36, of Philadelphia, was seized by British authorities at his New-castle-on-Ayne lodging, and turned over to American army officials at Burtonwood.

At the time he was arrested, the alleged former U. S. soldier, had his hair set in an attractive bob, and wore stylish woman's slacks over nylon stockings.

U. S. spokesmen said no charge has yet been made against Hill, but that an investigation of his doings since 1945 is under way. Army officials said that instructions are being awaited from Washington.

British police quoted Hill as saying he deserted the army air force in England in August 1945 to avoid transfer to the Far East.

Hill, according to army spokesmen, was apprehended on the tip-off of an unnamed London girlfriend, after a "lover's quarrel." The army said that the former G.I. served as a P.C. with the air force, and told them he planned to organize a summer tour of Britain with his own vaudeville troupe.

Hill allegedly performed in British music halls as "Donna Delbert," producing cats and dogs out of "empty" barrels and "eating" fire.

A 15-year-old assistant, Stan Speed, said:

"I didn't know he was a man. He spoke like a woman."

Other performers admitted they never questioned "Donna's" sex although they now recall that the magician never made friends.

Even Jasper Maskelyne, a leading vaudeville magician admitted to being "taken in" by the disguise during the six months they worked together. He said:

"She had a first class act. Audiences, particularly children, loved her."

Irene Wick an assistant who toured with "Donna" for 18 months said:

"Donna was fastidious about clothes, liked well-cut skirts and blouses. She smoked heavily and drank beer out of pint glasses."

Non-breakable vials, cosmetic jars and a wide variety of other pharmaceutical and food type containers are being mass-produced to broaden the base for potential sales of products that were not previously possible to package. These containers are lighter than glass by 75 percent, and are especially adapted for products having wet, oily, acidic contents, as well as dry products that are sensitive to moisture.

Occupation Babies Born Overseas Retain Rights As American Children

By JOHN RICH
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

TOKYO, April 8.—Occupation babies born overseas thousands of miles from America still can hope to become president.

Gen. Douglas MacArthur's legal experts have ruled that the thousands of little boys (and even little girls) born in America's far-flung outposts since surrender have not lost that birthright of every American child—the right to be president.

Many parents of children born overseas have wondered if their offspring would be ruled out as prospective presidential timber.

Almost 4,000 Born In Japan
Almost 4,000 American babies have been born in Japan since the occupation began. Half this total was born last year and MacArthur's Medical Chief Maj. Gen. J. A. Bethea said:

"As far as I can see there'll be as many coming in 1949."

At the request of International News Service, SCAP's legal section prepared a study which showed that children of American parents born almost anywhere can qualify as "natural born" if they meet a few simple requirements.

Article 2 Section 4 of the Constitution provides that "no person except a natural born citizen shall be eligible to the office of president."

Conclusions Made
The legal section study concluded that:

A. A child born in Japan of parents, both of whom are American citizens and one of whom resided in the United States prior to the birth of the child, is a natural-born citizen.

B. A child born in Japan of parents one of whom is a United States citizen in the employ of the U. S. Government, such as a Army department civilian, is a natural-born citizen provided the citizen parent meets certain United States residence requirements.

C. A child born in Japan of parents, one of whom is an American citizen with certain United States residence requirements and the other an alien, is a natural-born citizen provided the child retains his citizenship by complying with specified residence requirements.

In this case, if the child wishes to retain citizenship he or she must live in the U. S. or its possessions for five years between the ages of 13 and 21.

Residence Requirements
The residence requirement for parents in cases B. and C. provides that the citizen parent must have lived a total of ten years in the United States (five of them after the parent's 16th birthday) in order to be able to pass on citizenship.

Congress had to pass a special act to take care of youthful soldiers, drafted or enlisted before they were 21, who later married alien girls in foreign countries.

On July, 1946, an Act of Congress was approved permitting preservation of citizenship of children born abroad to United States servicemen who were under the age of 21 when the child was born.

Japanese People Believe War Would Have Lasted Longer, But For A-Bomb

By HOWARD HANDLEMAN
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

TOKYO, April 9.—The Japanese, the only people on earth who have undergone atomic bombing, generally consider that President Truman's warning that the United States is ready to use the A-bomb again if necessary, should help insure peace.

Premier Shigeru Yoshida declared today that if the Americans had not used the atomic bomb against Japan, it might have been necessary to carry out thousands more bombing raids.

"The war would have lasted much longer," Yoshida said, "and both Japanese and American casualties would have been definitely higher."

Yoshida underlined the effect of the bomb by requesting through his secretary that his comments on the atomic bomb to International News Service be withheld from the Japanese because "it would merely open an old wound."

"Instrument of Peace"
Shunichi Kase, a former official of the Japanese Foreign office who accompanied Mamoru Shigemitsu aboard the USS Missouri to sign the surrender, said that the atomic bomb was "an instrument of peace" in the last war and should be a deterrent to war now.

Kase, who was high in government councils at war's end, declared that the atomic bomb permitted civilians to overcome the army's determination to make a last ditch fight.

This came about, he said, because "we were thus able to argue that America's scientific advances over Japan forced the surrender, and did not mean that the army lacked military valor." He added:

"We needed something of that sort to persuade the army that resistance was futile. The atom bombing also gave the emperor a determination to end the war and save the lives of civilians."

Kase declared that the effect of the atomic bomb was greater than that of Russia's entry into the war, inasmuch as Japan was prepared for Soviet action but had no anticipation of the use of a weapon such as the atomic bomb.

CAA's New Airport Program To Cost 40 Million Dollars

Tentative Program Would Cover
3,500 Airport Building Or Improvement Projects

WASHINGTON, April 9.—(INS)—Details of the Civil Aeronautics Administration's federal airport construction program during the fiscal year beginning July 1 were disclosed on Friday. The program would cost about 40 million dollars. The CAA's tentative program, covering about 3,500 airport building or improvement projects, was approved virtually intact Thursday when the house granted $36,500,000 in contract authority for the 1950 fiscal year.

Available carry-over funds would prevent any sharp cut due to the congressional $3,500,000 reduction. In most cases the state or municipality would have to match the federal grant in order to get the money.

The states drawing the greatest shares of federal aid would be: New York $2,004,110, California $2,364,300, Pennsylvania $2,004,110, Texas $1,981,780, Michigan $1,253,000, Missouri $1,189,800, Massachusetts $1,119,000, Minnesota $1,105,000, Georgia $1,042,125, Indiana $965,000 and Ohio $856,000.

Among the largest individual projects with the amounts the federal government would spend if matched by state or local governments are:

Portsmouth (Ohio) municipal $120,000, Cleveland municipal $350,000, Cleveland Cuyahoga county $100,000, Cincinnati (Ohio) Blue Ash $100,000, Portland (Ore.) $45,000, Philadelphia (Pa.) International $600,000, Pittsburgh (Pa.) $600,000, Pittsburgh Allegheny $17,300, Harrisburg (Pa.) $104,300, Reading (Pa.) municipal $350,760, Erie (Pa.) $100,000.

Reds Claim Original Bicycle Was Russian

Exact Copy Of Original Built In 1801 Displayed At Ply-technical Museum

MOSCOW, April 9.—(INS)—The Soviets added another "first" today to its growing list of claimed achievements in the scientific field—the bicycle.

Moscow newspapers reported that a high iron bicycle with a wooden seat, now on display at the Plytechnical museum, is an exact copy of the original on which the inventor Artamonov pedaled 1,000 miles from the Ural mountains to Moscow in 1801.

Invention of the bicycle previously had been attributed to a German named Dreiss who built an all-wooden one in 1813.

In recent weeks, Soviet publications claimed invention of the incandescent lamp, the automobile, the airplane and the motion picture camera as well as the discovery of penicillin.

One Dollar Theft Gets Year Sentence

Clark had been convicted of felonies four times previously.

Santa Monica Court Hears Ritchie Trial

Girl Friend Of Gerard Dennis
Charged With Receiving
Stolen Property

SANTA MONICA, Cal., April 9.—(INS)—The trial of Betty Ritchie attractive girl friend of Gerard Dennis, the million-dollar "raffles," resumes today in Santa Monica superior court, where she is charged with receiving stolen property.

A $3,000 mink coat was marked "exhibit 1" when the trial opened in Judge Harry J. Borde's court yesterday.

Police Sgt. R. W. Borders, first witness against the former Canadian school teacher, told of going to the Beverly Hills apartment where the defendant has admitted she lived with Dennis under the name of Mrs. Jerry McKay.

Borders testified he and Sgt. James D. Salcorn in a search of the apartment found the mink coat stolen from the Bel-Air home of Waite Phillips, of the oil family, in 1948.

Borders said Miss Ritchie first maintained she had brought the coat from Canada and had removed the label because she thought it would be easier to take across the border. Later she admitted that "Jerry gave it to me."

He said other fur coats, some bars and scraps of melted gold, dresses and other clothing were found when the officers continued their search.

He testified Miss Ritchie told him "Jerry would get it for me" whenever she wanted additional clothing.

Prior to entering the service, Lt. Hoschar, who was a graduate of senior high school, was a salesman for the H. Rom Company, and a member of the First Baptist church.

In June, 1942, he was married to Miss Josephine Bruno, who survives, together with a daughter, Joan. He also leaves his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hoschar, of Meyer avenue, and a brother Glenn.

Nine Atlantic City Hotels Strike Bound

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., April 9.—(INS)—A pre-Easter strike today hampered service at nine of Atlantic City's 15 major beachfront hotels.

Some 1,800 employees voted the walkout last night in an effort to boost wages 15 to 35 per cent.

Managers of the hotels immediately announced they would help from any available source to maintain service.

The walkout included waiters, waitresses, cooks, kitchen help, bellboys, porters and elevator operators.

Service in most of the hotels was continued on a curtailed basis with the aid of office employees and supervisory personnel.

The hotels are the Brighton, Claridge, Lennis, President, Mayflower, Ritz-Carlton, St. Charles, Shelburne and the Traymore.

Avernus is a small round lake in Campania, Italy, the crater of an extinct volcano whose sulphurous and poisonous odors led anciently to the belief that it was the mouth of Hades.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

HOUNDS gave tongue today in pursuit of coons in the Frew Mill Road district. The bang of shotgun was heard at the Ellwood City-Warrior Rod & Gun club where a Lucky Target shoot was in progress, and tomorrow, between 2 p. m. and 6 p. m. members of the Lawrence County Sportsman's association will trap and shoot at their Harbor farm. So far officials have arrived at no definite decision concerning a lake at their farm. Monday night in Ben Franklin Junior High school gymnasium, 12-18-year-old youths will receive their fourth, and free, lesson in casting, which will be the last prior to the opening of trout season, next Friday. . . . Jess Davis, city employee, well known for his hunting ability, is feeling indisposed. . . . Despite Commissioner Montgomery's "No", Matchmaker Tommy Leach, Jefferson Athletic club, intends to personally talk over the proposal he be allowed to stage grappling matches between members of the feminine sex. They say it's a great show—and after all, that is what all present day wrestling matches are. . . . Ashley has protested the decision giving Kane the Class B basketball title. It took a basketball team to put Ashley on the map. . . . Some time ago Hugh McCormick, Harlansburg, said he caught eels at Kennedy's Mills. His statement was verified by Chauncey Campbell, former Harlansburg resident, who said he also caught 'em there, some of them being 28 inches long. One of the biggest "thrills" Billy Fessler ever had was when a tire on Here & There's car blew out while descending the steep hill at McConnell's Mills, en route to fishing. . . . Frankie Muche, an ex-Arena amateur battles Johnny Rowe in a five-rounder, as a preliminary bout to the Dick Wagner-Artie Levine fight in Cleveland, Monday night. . . . Chuck Hunter, Chubby Wright, Johnny Bassett, Paul Simpson (stopped by Rizieri Ronzi), Jerry Fleming and Harry Moore have fights there that night. No doubt, Frankie Ross and Dory Gunnelt will witness the battles. . . . Men who fight stages prefer the finest steel in their gaffs. Time was when mains were held hereabouts but, apparently they're passe, nowadays. Too much chance of a raid and their birds being donated to institutions.

Gaylord Stoughton, Scott township, who stayed home, while others went to the Big Woods, thus bagging a buck, is sporting a new gas buggy. . . . Gaylord was with an Armored division in WW 2, and was wounded landing on Normandie Beach. . . . Paul McCullough, veteran twirler, says he is keeping in shape, handling large bottles of water for a local firm. . . . Attorney Joe McFate has succeeded Sheriff Frank Coen as commissioner in the Lawrence County Baseball shop. He is the second attorney to hold that berth, former Judge James A. Chambers having been one of the commissioners when Jokey Travers and Here & There also were commissioners. Eighteenth annual Mansfield, O., relays will be held April 22-23. Springfield, O., won the 1948 relays, piling up 31.7 points. Dayton Dunbar and Columbus Central tied for second place. . . . The Arden Homestead harness racing stable of E. Roland Harriman and E. T. Gerry, will transfer from Orlando, Fla., to Goshen, N. Y., April 24. Frank Ervin, trainer of the highly regarded Martha Boyle, will enter her in the $65,000 Hambletonian, the $60,000 Kentucky Futurity, and the $55,000 Little Brown Jug races this year. Harms racing stables training in the South, have started for the North to be ready for the Eastern meets. . . . Lowellville, O., is now in the County Baseball league. It is the first time in the long history of the circuit that an out-of-state team has asked for, and been awarded a franchise. . . . Alderman Jimmie Brice likes his horse racing. . . . Sports Afield says the bloodhound is believed to have the keenest scent of all dogs. It is one of the earliest hounds, the last surviving branch of the St. Hubert family in hound-dog type. . . . Jimmie Fowler, former taxicabist, is now wearing a dispenser's apron. . . . Walter Bartoshek has a nifty Chihuahua which can almost be hid in a pocket. . . . While he is giving his wallop a chance to mend from an injury, Frankie Moran, local welterweight, has turned out salesmen. . . . Bill Hodgkinson, who twirled in the days of Rube Waddell, observed his 75th birthday this week. In his days he was one of the best hurlers in the tri-state district.

Robinson Signs For Title Bout

NEW YORK, April 9.—(INS)—Sugar Ray Robinson switched promoters again today, signing to defend his welterweight title for the Tournament of Champions instead of for the 20th Century Sporting Club.

However, Cuba's Kid Gavilan, the outstanding contender for the title, may decide to stick with the 20th Century, which would leave Robinson without a suitable opponent.

In any event, the 20th Century is going to sue Robinson for breach of contract.

TORONTO EDGES RED WING 3-2

The first game of hockey's biggest series of the year—the Stanley Cup playoff final—went into overtime at Detroit with the Toronto Maple Leafs edging the Detroit Red Wings, 3-2.

The winning goal was scored by Jim Klukay at 17, 31 of the first extra period.

Schill To Speak At Titan Banquet

Denny Schill, secretary of the Ellwood City Chamber of Commerce, has been named speaker for the annual athletic banquet at Westminster College, Tuesday, April 19. Schill is a former Struthers, O., high school football coach, and is acting as an official. District spots' writers have been invited.

Youths Practice Casting Monday

Four free instructions to 12-18-year-old youths, the last before trout season is ushered in Friday will be given by expert outdoorsmen in Ben Franklin Junior High school at 7:30 p. m. Monday. Fly-tying, fly-casting and skin casting will be featured. Several scores of youths are expected to participate in the events.

Vince Foster Wins Decision As Crowd Boos

Omaha Fighter Looks Unim- pressive As He Beats Chuck Taylor Of Coalport, Pa.

By CHARLES EINHORN
(International News Service Staff Writer)
CHICAGO, April 9.—Vince Foster, the Omaha biblical student, can cite chapter and verse today as to how he nearly lost to Chuck Taylor, a 1-to-3 underdog, in his supposedly gala return to the ring at the Chicago Stadium.

Foster emerged from last night's 10-round welterweight feature the holder of a split-decision verdict over his 26-year-old Coalport, Pa., opponent. But if any of the 11,574 spectators believed it, their voices went unheard in the din of booing that greeted the final announcement.

The reason it was close, as Foster himself was the first to agree, was that he couldn't hit the side of a barn with a baseball bat, and he had neither a barn nor a bat.

Timing Off
His timing badly off, Vince went a-swinging all around the ring while his slender, dark-browed opponent ducked and bobbed and tied Foster into the 27 different knots that every boy scout must master.

The feature supporting bout, a scheduled 10-rounder between heavyweights Richard Hagan of Chicago and Enrico Bertola of Italy, ended in 1:09 of the eighth heat with Hagan the winner on a technical knockout. It was about as technical as a knockout can be. Bertola, having been socked all over the place, finally turned his back and leaned against the ropes, and the referee stopped the fight.

Lemon Tames Giants
Cleveland Bob Lemon held the New York Giants ruffless during a seven-inning stint in the Indians' 2 to 0 triumph. The Giants found consolation in that their Monte Kennedy also pitched well for seven frames.

Other scores included: Browns 4, Cubs 2; Braves 11, Columbia 4; Beaumont 6, Pittsburgh 3; Phillies 11, Chattanooga 2; Athletics 14, Birmingham 4; Cardinals 8, New Orleans 2; Reds 5, Mobile 0; Tigers 10, Memphis 0; and Brooklyn 6, Atlanta 3.

DERBY TEST FOR OLYMPIC TODAY
NEW YORK, April 9.—(INS)—The Kentucky Derby status of Fred Hooper's Olympic will be tested over the mile and sixteenth round today in the Experimental Handicap No. 2 at Jamaica.

Olympia, following the declaration of Blue Peter and the probable withdrawal of Mr. Busher, became the current derby favorite after winning Experimental No. 1 last Saturday in record time. Previously he won the Flamingo Stakes.

FRANKS TO PRACTICE
Franks will hold a practice session at two p. m., Sunday on Lee Avenue field. Every evening next week practice will begin at 5 p. m. All 1948 players and those who have signed for 1949, in addition to those desiring a try-out should report to Manager Jim Rote, Saturday afternoon.

A group of Western Pennsylvania school superintendents are seeking the elimination of junior high school basketball tournaments in the district.

WAITRESS, BARTENDERS AND HOTEL EMPLOYEES LOCAL UNION NO. 785
A special meeting has been called for Sunday, April 10, 1:30 p. m., at the New Castle Trades & Labor Hall, 302½ East Washington St. Please be present.

Jimmie Smith Team Of South Bend, Holds 1949 Championship With 3027

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., April 9.—(INS)—The Jimmie Smiths of South Bend, Ind., are the kingspin of the American Bowling Congress today.

The talented Hoosiers, averaging 51 years in age, won the 1949 five-man team competition which ended last night. Other events—doubles, singles and "all events"—will be concluded today.

The Jimmie Smiths rolled a torrid 3027 last March 14th to gain the lead in a field of 5,444 five-man teams gathered in Atlantic City for the 57-day, 46th annual ABC in Convention Hall.

In addition to the customary sponsor's trophy, the South Bend quintet won $2,500 and five diamond-studded medals for their record games of 1061, 987 and 979 on March 14.

A total of $84,890 will be paid to winning teams in the regular division with approximately 2,655 being low to cash. "Booster" teams with averages of less than 850 divide $36,920 in prizes.

The Jimmie Smiths succeeded the Washington Shirts of Chicago, as ABC team champions. The latter rolled 3,007 in 1948.

No Recognition For Title Bout

PATERSON, N. J., April 9.—(INS)—National Boxing Commission Chairman Abe Greene denied Friday that the NBA would recognize a Gus Lesnevich-Joe Maxim bout as being for the world's light heavyweight championship.

The bout is scheduled for Cincinnati May 23 where Promoter Sam Becker is reported billing it as a world's title bout.

"The NBA recognizes this bout as being for the American title only," said Greene today. "We recognize Freddie Mills as world's light heavyweight champion since he won the title from Lesnevich and will continue to do so until he is defeated or retires."
